

Die Veneris 21. April. 1648.

Ordered by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, That in regard of the late contempt of Fellows, Officers, and Members of Colledges in Oxford to the authority of Parliament, The Visitors do send a new Summons for all Fellows, Officers, and Members of the severall Colledges and Halls, and if they do not appeare, or appearing shall not submit to the authority of Parliament the Visitation: That then the Visitors shall have power to suspend the present, And to certifie the same to the Committee of Lords and Commons for Reformation of the Vniversitie of Oxford, who upon the certificate thereof shall have power to remove, and deprive them from their places in their respective Colledges and Halls: and to expell them from the Vniversitie: And upon certificate thereof from the said Committee, the Heads of Houses in their respective Colledges, and Halls, with the Visitours, shall put others in their places.

Ordered by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, That the Order above written be forthwith printed: And that the Visitours of the Vniversitie of Oxford do publish the same in the Vniversitie of Oxford.

Ordered by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, That the Burfers and Treasurers of the Colledges in Oxford shall receive and keepe such monies as they have received without making any dividend, untill they shall receive Order from the Committee of Lords and Commons for Reformation of the Vniversitie of Oxford: And that from henceforth all Tenants, and such others as are to pay money, or other duties to any Colledge in the Vniversitie of Oxford, shall pay the same to the Heads of Houses appointed by authority of Parliament respectively, or to those whom they shall appoint to receive the same, and to no other. And that the Acquittance or Acquittances of such Heads of Houses, or of such as they shall appoint to receive the same, shall be a sufficient warrant and discharge to the severall Tenants for the payment thereof accordingly: Notwithstanding any condition in their Leases to the contrary.
